MEMBERSHIP REPORT

While the campaign for Fellows has been carried on quietly, the membership department has maintained its work of appealing for Annual and Sustaining memberships with equally gratifying success.

Since the last lists were published in the Bulletin for April, the names given below have been added to the membership list in addition to over one thousand annual members, too long a list to print. There are still thousands of people in Cleveland who should become supporters of the work the Museum is doing. Present members will do a real service by calling to the attention of non-members the importance of the service the Museum renders, and by sending in the names of friends who should be interested.
